1. Military Situation. Acting on instructions from KIAM Sein, President of a committee of the Chinese Communist Party at Ba Xa (106-37, 21-47), TSEN Ho Muoie, head of the organization section of this committee, sent 115 cadets from Viet Nam to Chungking for instruction in aviation. Ninety of the cadets were Vietnamese. Five similar groups have been sent in the past.
2. LO Tac Phi is Commander-in-Chief of the Chinese Communist troops in the Langson area. These troops are now undergoing intensive training.
3. One thousand Chinese Communist troops, under the command of HO Pou Tack, have arrived in the Langson sector after participating in various battles in the That Khe-Dong Khe area during the last few months. They have established their headquarters at an unnamed village 14 kilometers from Ky Lua (106-46, 21-51).
4. The only supplies sent from China to this sector in the last few months are stated to have been engines (type and number unspecified) and medicines. The engines have been sent on to Bac Kan and Thai Nguyen.
5. Information Department. The head of the Information Department of the Da Xa Committee is CHU Chenh. He is stated to have succeeded in infiltrating Communists as local recruits into the French Army. These men will endeavor, as a first step, to have themselves posted in isolated military stations.
6. Sabotage Section. LAU On Sang is head of this section in the Langson sector. Sabotage material is stocked at Hoi Hoan (106-23, 22-03). Twenty-four cadres have arrived back from China after taking a course in sabotage at a training center at Lungchou, in Kwangsi. They have been posted to various Chinese units in the sector to train saboteurs.
